The Victor RECORD CATALOG

MORE than seven thousand individuals are represented on the Victor records listed in this Catalog.

This figure includes the individual members of orchestras and choruses; but by no means includes all Victor artists. Hundreds of others make records, in more than thirty foreign languages,—listed in more than thirty catalogs,—for the foreign-born or the foreign-language-speaking population in the United States alone. Others again, make records only for export. Still others make records, in every quarter of the world, for the foreign companies affiliated with the Victor. And still others have made records for us which we have dropped from Victor catalogs since the discoveries which have led to the new Orthophonic Victrola and new Orthophonic Victor records.

In Camden alone, at the principal plant of the Victor Company, three or four famous artists may be recording at once, in different laboratories, oblivious to one another's presence in the same city. And the same thing is true of the Company's recording laboratories in New York, at Oakland, Cal., and in a lesser degree, in other places.

The artists who collaborate with us at the Victor are the greatest we can find and engage. A list of them is a roll of honor in the world's musical history for the past twenty-five years. Their combined earning power, and the value of the time they have spent with us, are difficult to compute. One Victor artist, now dead, received as much as ten thousand dollars for a single operatic performance.

In bringing these artists together for you, to play, sing, or otherwise entertain you, we always have done so with the unbroken determination to give you the very best the world can produce, in every class of music. And we shall never do otherwise.

When you come to look over what Victor artists have done for your pleasure in music, you will notice some things about the way we bring it to your attention in this Catalog.

You will see, in the first place, that it has no index. It is all an alphabetical index, from A to Z.

Every piece of music, artist and composer is listed in proper alphabetical place. Every record bears its number, size and Catalog price. Moreover, both the compositions on a record are listed together; if you look for a given title, you can see exactly what is on the other side of the record.

Take, for instance, record No. 6584:

{ Blue Danube Waltz (Strauss) Philadelphia Orchestra } 6584 12 2.00
 { Tales from the Vienna Woods—Waltz (Strauss) Philadelphia Or }

Now look under "T," and you will find it thus:

{ Tales from the Vienna Woods—Waltz (Strauss) } 6584 12 2.00
 { Blue Danube Waltz (Strauss) Philadelphia Orchestra }

To make the Catalog complete as possible, we frequently list the same piece under different headings. An operatic record may be listed under the opera from which it is taken; under the artist recording it, or under its composer, at the end of the white-paged section of the Catalog.

A standard song or instrumental composition may be similarly listed, in all three places. Dance records and march records also are grouped under "Dance" and "March," or under the names of the artists making them; and they will always be found in proper alphabetical place as well—exactly like the names in the telephone book. You will find other interesting classifications. It will pay you to examine the Catalog thoroughly.

Operatic record listings have the following helps: Almost every opera from which we are making records, is listed with the place and date of its first performance; many have sketches of their plots; here and there is an actual pictured scene; every record is listed under the title of the opera, and in the exact order, in the plot, in which it is sung or played, by act and scene. And you will find also, portraits of many artists and sketches of their careers.

The Red Seal records, beside being listed in the alphabetical section of the Catalog, are grouped together into a special "Red Seal Section" with light red pages. Following this is the "Green" section of records chiefly made in earlier years, which we retain for historic or sentimental reasons, or by public demand. This is fully explained on the page introducing this section.

Most Victor records are made with an accompaniment by the full orchestra. Where the piano or other instrument is used, or where a composition is played or sung unaccompanied, you will usually find this specified in the Catalog.

It seems almost unnecessary, but we say again to Victor customers: "Use only Victor needles," "don't play records at various speeds," and "don't use a steel needle more than once."

Set the regulator so that the turntable of your Victrola revolves seventy-eight times a minute, and never change it unless for some special purpose. When using Victrola and piano together, it may be necessary to change the speed slightly to get the two instruments exactly in tune; and sometimes dancers wish a little variation to suit their steps. But test the speed occasionally by placing a slip of paper under the edge of the record, and while it is playing, see that the paper revolves seventy-eight times in one minute.

Don't try to drop the needle or Tungs-tone Stylus exactly into the first record groove. It is likely to make a hole, and you will hear a little "tick" when the needle passes over the spot. The proper way is to start the instrument; then wait two or three seconds until it reaches full speed (you can give the turntable a little "push" to help this), carefully lower the sound box so that the needle or stylus rests on the smooth outside rim of the disc; then let go and it will glide gently into the first groove of the record. Always be careful to place a Tungs-tone Stylus GENTLY on the record to avoid bending the point.

We take very great pains to make this Catalog complete and keep it up to date. We work on it the whole year round. But in spite of our best care, a mistake, now and then, will creep in. Where you find such a mistake, you will be doing a very great service to us and to every lover of music if you will let us know of it. And we are always grateful for suggestions that you think may improve the Catalog generally; we thank the many friends who have sent us such suggestions in the past.

All communications dealing with the Catalog should be addressed to the Victor Catalog Editor, Camden, N. J.

THE RETURN OF RHADAMES—ACT II

★Indicates old acoustical method of recording.

and is a slave at Memphis, where she and the young soldier, Rhadames, have fallen in love with each other. Rhadames goes to the Egyptian war, and during his absence the King's daughter, Amneris, discovers the attachment and is furious, as she herself loves Rhadames.

Rhadames returns, covered with glory and bringing many prisoners, among them Amonasro, Aida's father. The King releases all the prisoners, except Amonasro, and bestows his daughter on the unwilling Rhadames.

In the next scene Amonasro forces his daughter to persuade Rhadames to become a traitor. The latter's love for Aida and his distaste for the approaching union with Amneris lead him to consent. Amneris, however, has overheard the plot, and after vainly trying to induce Rhadames to abandon Aida, in a jealous rage she denounces him as a traitor, and he is condemned to be buried alive. When the vault is sealed he discovers Aida, who has concealed herself there that she might die with him, and the lovers slowly suffocate.

NOTE—The selections in all operas in this catalog are printed in the order of their occurrence in the opera.

BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA (Bahr-beay'-reh dee See-veel'-yah) In Italian

The plot of Barber is very simple. Count Almaviva loves Rosina, the ward of Dr. Bartolo, a crusty old bachelor, who secretly wishes to marry her himself. Almaviva persuades the village barber, Figaro, to arrange a meeting for him, and gains entrance to the house disguised as a dragoon, but is arrested by the guardian. Not discouraged, he returns, pretending to be a substitute for Rosina's music teacher, who, he says, is ill. The appearance of the real music master, Don Basilio, spoils this plan, and the Count retreats for the second time, having, however, arranged a plan for elopement. Bartolo finally arouses Rosina's jealousy by pretending that the Count loves another, and she promises to forget him and marry her guardian. When the time for the elopement arrives she meets the Count, intending to reproach him, but he convinces her of the base plot of Bartolo, and the lovers are wedded by a notary, just as Bartolo arrives with officers to arrest the Count. The opera by many is considered Rossini's masterpiece. (For complete description, with many illustrations, see the Victrola Book of the Opera.)

BOHÊME, LA (Boh-ehm') (The Bohemians) (Puccini)

Text by Giacosa and Illica; music by Puccini. First produced at Turin, 1896. In English, as "The Bohemians," in London, 1897. In Italian at Covent Garden, 1899. First American production, November 28, 1899.

Puccini's Bohème is an adaptation of part of Mürger's La Vie Bohème, which depicts life in the Quartier Latin, or the Students' Quarter, in 1830. The principal characters in Puccini's opera are the inseparable quartet described by Mürger, who with equal cheerfulness defy the pangs of hunger and the landlord of their little garret. Rudolph, a poet; Marcel, a painter; Colline, a philosopher; and Schaunard, a musician, are our friends who occupy an attic in the Quartier Latin, where they live and work together. Improvident, reckless and careless, these happy-go-lucky Bohemians find a joy in merely living, being full of faith in themselves.

Rudolph makes the acquaintance of Mimi, a little flower-maker; Marcel meets the gay Musetta, who plays fast and loose with him. Alternate quarrels and reconciliations fill the lives of these lovers, but the final separation ends with the sad death of Mimi, at the close of the opera. In the scenes of careless gaiety is interwoven a touch of pathos; and the music is in turn lively and tender, with a haunting sweetness that is most fascinating.

BOHEMIAN GIRL (Michael Wm. Balfe) (The records are sung in English)

This popular ballad opera was one of fifteen similar works by Michael Wm. Balfe (1808) and was produced at Drury Lane, London, in 1843.

The story tells of the kidnapping of Arline, daughter of the Count Arnheim, by Devilshoof, a gypsy chief. Thaddeus, a young noble banished from his country, joins the gypsy band and falls in love with Arline. While the gypsies are attending a fair at Presburg, Arline, now a beautiful maiden of 17, incurring the displeasure of the Gypsy Queen, is accused of stealing and is taken before Count Arnheim, who recognizes his daughter by a scar on her arm. She is restored to her rank, but continues to meet Thaddeus secretly, until the lovers are denounced to the Count by the jealous Queen. The Count is at first indignant, but the pleading of his daughter, and the knowledge that Thaddeus is of noble birth reconciles him to the union of the lovers.

BOOK OF THE OPERA—The new and complete rewritten Seventh Edition

We enjoy Grand Opera more when we know more about it, and in all the literature of music we know of no other publication which gives so definite an insight into the subject as does the "Victrola Book of the Opera."

Not only is the story of the plot given, but aria, duet, trio, or whatever it may be, is usually noted in its proper place, so that with this book and the necessary Victor records one may actually get a better understanding of the subject at home than by attending actual performances.

The "Victrola Book of the Opera" is a volume of over four hundred pages. It contains the story and the dramatic action of practically every opera which has survived the test of time, and is handsomely bound in cloth and stamped in gold.

The book may be procured from any dealer in Victor products. If, however, he is unable to supply you, information regarding it including the price, may be had by addressing the Victor Talking Machine Company, Camden, N. J.

A copy of this volume should be in every school, music club, conservatory of music and in the private library of all those who possess an active interest in good music; and it is, of course, extremely valuable to the music teacher.

BOURDON, ROSARIO, Musical Director

ROSARIO BOURDON

Rosario Bourdon was born at Montreal, Canada, in 1885. He took up the 'cello, a most difficult instrument for an ungrown child, when he was only seven years old, and two years later he appeared in public. He was sent to Europe for study; and at twelve he graduated from the conservatory at Ghent, with the highest honors. He received also the first prize for chamber music. He then toured Europe as a child prodigy. He continued concertizing and private study until 1900, when, as a lad of fifteen, he made his American debut at Montreal. A year or so later he joined the Cincinnati Orchestra under Van Der Stucken; in 1904 he became 'cellist in the Philadelphia Orchestra, with concert appearances as soloist. Preferring conducting to concert-playing, he returned to Europe for further study, and, on coming back to America, played a while with the St.

Paul Orchestra, of which he was Assistant Conductor. He joined the Victor staff in 1911 as Conductor and Arranger. He has made many notable contributions to the literature and the technique of recorded music.

BURR, HENRY, Tenor

Henry Burr is of Canadian birth, but most of his studies were pursued in the United States. He has sung both on the stage and in choir; but he has chosen as his particular field the popular sentimental ballad, although he has made records of many other types of music, including that of sacred song. He has made many records with the Peerless Quartet, in which his voice may easily be recognized. Henry Burr's admirers are numbered by the millions.

CARMEN (Bizet) (Sung in French unless otherwise noted)

Text by Meilhan and Halévy, founded on Mérimée's novel. Music by Bizet. First production, Paris, 1875; London, 1878; New York, 1879, with Minnie Hauk. Some notable revivals, 1893, Calvé's first appearance; 1905, with Caruso; and Hammerstein's revival, 1906, with Bressler-Gianoli and Dalmores.

Don Jose, a young brigadier, betrothed to Micaela, a peasant girl in his native village, is quartered at Seville near a factory where Carmen, a reckless and beautiful cigarette girl, stabs a fellow-employee, and is arrested by Jose. She manages to fascinate him, and makes her escape. Jose is imprisoned for neglect of duty, but when released follows the gypsy to Pastia's Inn, where he finds Escamillo, a Toreador, and Zuniga, his captain, both paying court to Carmen. Stung with jealousy he deserts, and follows the band of smugglers Carmen has joined.

The next act shows the smugglers' camp, and Carmen, already tired of her soldier welcomes the Toreador, who has followed her. Jose is about to kill her when Micaela arrives with a summons from his dying mother. He goes, but threatens vengeance. In the last act Jose, half crazed with jealousy, kills Carmen outside the bull ring, where she is awaiting the triumphant Escamillo. ## CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA (Kah-vahl-lay-ree'-ah Roos-tih-kah'-nah)

(Rustic Chivalry) (Mascagni) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted

Opera in one act; libretto adapted from "Verga" by Menasci; music by Mascagni. First production, Rome, 1890; London, 1891; first U. S. production at Phila., 1891.

The story of "Rustic Chivalry" is one of Sicilian love and hate, passion and revenge. Turiddu, a young peasant, son of old Lucia, goes to war, and during his absence from the village his sweetheart, Lola, forgets him and weds the young carter, Alfio. Turiddu returns and consoles himself with the love of Santuzza, the village beauty, but soon tiring of her, his old passion for Lola revives. Santuzza, scorned by Turiddu, reveals the affair to the wronged husband. On Easter morning, as the villagers are leaving church, Alfio challenges the destroyer of his domestic happiness. Repenting his misdeeds, Turiddu takes an affectionate leave of his mother, and goes forth to the duel. Justice is accomplished in his death at the hands of Alfio, and the betrayed Santuzza is left disconsolate.

FAUST (Fowst) by Gounod

Opera in five acts; libretto by Barbier and Carré, founded upon Goethe's tragedy; music by Gounod. First produced in Paris, 1859; London, 1863; New York, 1863.

Faust, a German philosopher, after a life of meditation, becomes disgusted with the smallness of human knowledge and his own inability to unravel the mysteries of Nature. He summons to his aid the Spirit of Evil, who appears to him under the form of Mephistopheles. Through the supernatural power of the latter, Faust is restored to youth and endowed with personal beauty and luxurious garb. Mephistopheles, in a vision, reveals to him the village maid Margaret, with whom the student falls in love. Margaret, noted for her loveliness, has been left by her soldier brother, Valentine, under the care of Dame Martha, a worthy but not very vigilant personage. The maiden at first rejects the stranger's advances, but Faust, aided by the influence of Mephistopheles, urges his suit and Margaret's resistance is at length overcome. Valentine, on returning from the wars learns what has occurred; he challenges his sister's betrayer, but, through the intervention of Mephistopheles, he is killed in the duel. Margaret, horror-stricken at the calamity of which she is the cause, gives way to despair. Her reason becomes affected, and in a frenzy she kills her infant. She is thrown into prison, and Faust, aided by Mephistopheles, obtains access to the cell in which she is confined. They both eagerly urge her to fly, but Margaret, in whom holier feelings have obtained the ascendant, spurns their proffered aid, and expires. Mephistopheles is triumphant at the apparent success of his schemes to destroy a human soul, but a chorus of heavenly voices is heard proclaiming that there is pardon for the repentant sinner, and the Evil One, foiled and overcome, crouches in terror as the spirit of Margaret is borne to heaven by ministering angels.

HEALTH EXERCISES—Prepared under the supervision of Prof. Charles H. Collins of The Collins Institute for Physical Culture, Phila.

These records are for physical exercise. There are three, including twelve exercises in all, with music and spoken commands. They come in a triple cloth container which can be opened out and read while learning them. Each exercise is also described in a booklet which comes with the set. They are not made to develop abnormally strong men and women, but to maintain health; adults and children may use them. They should be practiced lightly at first, but with greater force as strength and condition are developed. For men who miss their army setting-up exercises they will prove invaluable. With a portable Victrola they may be practiced anywhere; in the bedroom, the bath, wherever there is room. There is always time.

plot of Lucia is founded on Sir Walter Scott's novel, The Bride of Lammermoor. Lord Henry Ashton, Lucy's brother, knowing nothing of her attachment to his enemy, Edgar of Ravenswood, has arranged a marriage between Lucy and the wealthy Lord Arthur, in order to retrieve his fallen fortunes. Learning that Lucy is in love with Edgar, he intercepts her lover's letters and executes a forged paper, which convinces Lucy that Edgar is false to her. Convinced of her lover's perfidy, and urged by the necessities of her brother, she unwillingly consents to wed Sir Arthur. The guests are assembled for the ceremony, and Lucy has just signed the contract, when Edgar appears and denounces Lucy for her fickleness. Edgar is driven from the castle, and the shock being too much for the gentle mind of Lucy, she becomes insane, kills her husband and dies. Edgar, overcome by these tragic happenings, visits the churchyard of Ravenswood and stabs himself.

MARTHA (Vienna, 1847) (Flotow) Sung in Italian unless otherwise noted

See Victrola Book of the Opera for complete illustrated description

Opera in four acts; libretto by St. George and Friedrich; music by Friedrich von Flotow. The opera is an elaboration of "Lady Henrietta, or the Servant of Greenwich," a ballet-pantomime, with text by St. George and music by Flotow, Burgmuller and Deldevez, which was suggested by an actual incident, and presented in Paris in 1844. Martha was first produced at the Court Opera, Vienna, 1847; London, 1858; Paris, 1858; Milan, 1859. First American production, 1852.

MESSIAH (Dublin 1742) (Handel)
"The Messiah" had its origin at one of the darkest moments of the composer's life. At a time when his operatic enterprises had come to nought, and with spirits depressed and fortune gone, he began the great series of oratorios by which his genius lives today. "The Messiah" was first given in Dublin with a mere handful of performers—a chorus hardly more numerous than many a village church can get together for a harvest festival, serving to make known a work afterwards to be performed by thousands in massed choirs at a modern Handel festival.

PAGLIACCI, I (Pah-ly-ah'-chee) The Players Sung in Italian

Dramatic opera in two acts; libretto and music both by Ruggiero Leoncavallo. First production, Milan, 1892; London, 1893; first American production, 1894, with Kronold, Montegriffo and Campanari. The scene is laid in Calabria, between 1865 and 1870.

During the orchestral introduction Tonio, in clown costume, appears and explains that the subject of the play is taken from real life; reminds the audience that actors are but men, with passions like their own, and that the author has endeavored to express the real feelings and sentiments of the characters he will introduce. He then orders up the curtain. The first act shows the entrance to an Italian village. Canio, and his troupe of strolling players, or pagliacci, having paraded through the village, now announce a performance for that evening at seven, and Canio goes with Peppe into the tavern. Tonio, the clown, remains behind, ostensibly to care for the donkey, but in reality to make love to Nedda, Canio's wife. She repulses him, striking him with her whip, and he swears to be revenged. Silvio, a rich young villager, in love with Nedda, now joins her and begs her to fly with him. She refuses, but admits that she loves him, her confession being overheard by Tonio, who hurries in search of his master. Canio returns too late to catch Silvio, but mad with jealousy, he demands the lover's name, and when Nedda refuses, tries to kill her, but is restrained by the others. Nedda goes to dress, and Canio is in despair at the thought of being obliged to play while his heart is breaking.

Act II. The audience is now assembled and the play begins. This proves to be the usual farce in which the clown makes love to Columbine during the absence of her husband, Punchinello. Strangely enough, this conventional farce is very like the situation in the real lives of the players, and when Punchinello (Canio) arrives and surprises the lovers, as the play demands, he loses his head as he hears Columbine repeat in the farce the very words Tonio had heard her say to the real lover earlier in the day. Mad with rage, he again demands her lover's name. Nedda tries to save the situation by continuing the play, and the audience is delighted by such realistic acting, until the intensity of Canio's passion begins to terrify them. The other players endeavor to silence him, but in vain. Finally, stung by his taunts, Nedda defies him and is stabbed, Canio hoping that in her death agony she will reveal the name of her lover. She falls, calling upon Silvio, who rushes from the crowd only to receive in turn the dagger of the outraged husband. As Canio is disarmed by the peasants he cries, as if in a daze, "The comedy is ended."

RIGOLETTO (Rig-oh-lef'-toh) (Verdi) (Sung in Italian Unless Otherwise Noted)

Opera in three acts; text by Piave, adapted from Hugo's drama Le Roi s'Amuse; music by Verdi. First produced Venice, 1851; London, 1853; Paris, 1857; N. Y., 1857. The scene is laid in Mantua and vicinity in the sixteenth century.

The story tells of the gay and unprincipled Duke of Mantua, who is assisted in his crimes by his jester, Rigoletto, a hunchback. The father of one of the Duke's victims is mocked by Rigoletto, and launches upon him a father's awful curse, which stuns and sobers the jester, as he, too, has a daughter, Gilda, unknown to the court. On his way home Rigoletto meets a professional assassin, Sparafucile, who offers, for a price, to kill any enemy he may have. Rigoletto says he may need him later. The Duke, in the guise of a young student, has already met Gilda, not knowing who she is, and the young girl has fallen in love with him. When Rigoletto has left the house the Duke's courtiers abduct Gilda and take her to the Palace. The father's rage is terrible to witness, and he goes to the Palace, but too late to save his daughter. She pleads for the Duke's life, but Rigoletto swears to kill him, and arranges with the assassin, Sparafucile, to accomplish the deed. The Duke is lured to a lonely inn by Sparafucile's attractive sister, Maddalena, and is about to be murdered when Maddalena, who has taken a fancy to him, begs for his life. Sparafucile consents provided a substitute should happen along before midnight. Gilda, whom Rigoletto had brought hither (disguised as a page) in order that she might witness the fickleness of her lover, has been listening to the conversation, and now resolves to save the Duke's life at the cost of her own. She enters the hut, is stabbed by Sparafucile, who delivers the body to Rigoletto according to agreement. Rigoletto is about to cast the body into the river when he hears the Duke's voice in the distance. The wretched man opens the sack, sees his daughter and falls senseless on her body.

SINGING LESSONS—The Oscar Saenger Course

The Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training is a practical, efficient system for teaching people to sing. It is based on the simplest and most direct principle of all teaching, which for the first time is now applied to singing in a new and original way.

No matter where they may live, all those who wish to sing may now learn to do so under the direction of a master who is credited with having entered more pupils upon successful operatic, oratorio or concert careers than has any other teacher in the United States.

The course consists of ten double-faced Victor records, which provide twenty lessons in vocalization. There is a separate set for each of the following five voices: Soprano, Mezzo-Soprano, Tenor, Baritone and Bass. In the Mezzo-Soprano there are special instructions for the training of children's voices.

With each set of records for any of the above voices there is also provided a textbook of supplementary information for the student.

All the necessary technique and all the necessary exercises for the development of perfect vocalization are provided, explained and worked out in the same definitely constructive way as they are in Oscar Saenger's own studio.

The Oscar Saenger Course in Vocal Training for any of the voices mentioned below may be procured from any Victor dealer.

Each set is furnished in a special container as follows:

TANNHÄUSER (Tahn'-hoy-zer)

Words and music by Richard Wagner. First presented Dresden, 1845; Paris, 1861; London, 1876; New York, 1859.

Tannhäuser, with its poetry, and romance; its characters, who are real human beings and not mythological gods, goddesses and heroes, appeals strongly to the average opera-goer. The story tells of conflict between two kinds of love: pure love as distinguished from mere sensuous passion; and relates how the higher love triumphed in the end.

Tannhäuser, a knight and minstrel, in an evil moment, succumbs to the wiles of Venus and dwells for a year in the Venusberg. Tiring of these monotonous delights, he leaves the goddess and returns to his home, where he is warmly received and told that the fair Elizabeth, niece of the Landgrave, still mourns for him. He is urged to compete in the Tournament of Song not far distant, the prize being the hand of Elizabeth. The theme of the contest is The Nature of Love, and when Tannhäuser's turn arrives the evil influence of the Venusberg is apparent when he delivers a wild and profane eulogy of passion. Outraged by this insult, the minstrels draw their swords to slay him, but Tannhäuser is protected by Elizabeth, who pleads for his life. Coming to his senses, too late, he repents, and when a company of Pilgrims pass on their way to Rome, he joins them to seek pardon for his sin. In the last act we see Elizabeth, weary and worn, supported by the noble Wolfram, who also loves her, watching for the Pilgrims to return, but Tannhäuser is not among them. Elizabeth is overcome with disappointment and feebly returns to her home.

SETTING OF ACT III

Tannhäuser now appears, in a wretched plight, on his way to re-enter the Hill of Venus. He tells Wolfram that he appealed to the Pope for pardon, but was told that his redemption was as impossible as that the Pope's staff should put forth leaves. Wolfram's remonstrances are in vain, and Tannhäuser is about to invoke the goddess, when a chant is heard and the Pilgrims appear, announcing that the Pope's staff had blossomed as a sign that the sinner was forgiven. Tannhäuser kneels in prayer as the mourners pass with the body of Elizabeth, who, overcome by her bitter disappointment, had suddenly passed away.

Tannhäuser begins and ends with the Chorus of Pilgrims, which appears also in the third act. During the opera it is penitential in spirit, but it becomes at the close a magnificent triumph-chant.

TRAVIATA, LA (Trah'-veeah-tah) (Verdi) Sung in Italian unless noted

Opera in three acts; libretto by Piave, founded on Dumas' Lady of the Camelias; music by Verdi. First presented Venice, 1853; London, 1856; New York, 1856.

Traviata is one of the most beautiful works of its class, and is full of lovely melodies; while the story of the unfortunate Violetta has caused many tears to be shed by sympathetic listeners. The plot, being quite familiar, will be but briefly sketched here. Violetta, a courtesan of Paris, is holding a brilliant revel in her home. Among the guests is a young man from Provence, Alfred, who is in love with Violetta, and after much persuasion, the spoiled beauty agrees to leave her gay life and retire with him to an humble apartment near Paris. After a few brief months of happiness the lovers are discovered by Alfred's father who pleads with Violetta to release his son from his promises. She yields for his sake, and resumes her former life in Paris. Alfred, not knowing the real cause of her desertion, seeks her out and publicly insults her. Too late he discovers the sacrifice Violetta has made, and when he returns, full of remorse, he finds her dying.

TROVATORE (Troh-vah-tohr'-eh) (Verdi) Sung in Italian unless noted.

Opera in four acts; words by Cammanaro, the story being suggested by a Spanish drama of the same name; music by Verdi. First produced at Rome, 1853; Paris, 1854; London, 1855; New York, 1855. The scene is laid in Biscay and Arragon in the fifteenth century.

Many years previous to the opening of the story the mother of Azucena, an old gypsy, had been burned as a witch by the father of the present Count di Luna, and Azucena, to revenge her mother's death, stole the young brother of the Count and brought him up as her son under the name of Manrico. He becomes a Troubadour and gains the love of Leonora, who is also beloved by the Count.

In Act I the rival suitors, in an effort to see Leonora, meet and a duel takes place, but Manrico generously spares the Count's life. Act II opens in the gypsy camp, where Manrico under the care of Azucena, is recovering from a recent wound. He learns that Leonora, thinking him dead, is about to take the veil, and that the Count intends to abduct her. He hastens to her and after an encounter in the Convent, Leonora is rescued. In the third act the lovers are finally about to be united, but Manrico suddenly learns that Azucena is in the power of the Count and condemned to be burned, and in his attempt to release her he is also captured by di Luna. In the last act Leonora, to save Manrico, offers to wed the Count, but takes poison as soon as the order of release is signed. Discovering this, the Count orders Manrico to instant execution, but just as the Troubadour dies the gypsy, Azucena, reveals to di Luna that he has killed his own brother.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPH RECORDS

A system of Victor records by means of which instruction in wireless may be obtained at home, originated in conjunction with the Marconi Institute of New York.

The course consists of six ten-inch double-face Victor records with a booklet of instruction, packed in a special case, and in the opinion of the Marconi Institute the instruction provided is so complete that with a reasonable amount of practice the student should become an efficient operator in a comparatively few weeks.

ALDA, FRANCES, Soprano (Ahl'-dah)

Frances Alda's amazing versatility is one of the most conspicuous of the many gifts bestowed upon her by Nature in a prodigal mood. A mere list of the operas in which she has sustained leading soprano rôles would fill a paragraph. Since making her début in "Rigoletto" at the Paris Opera Comique in 1904, she has sung a great number of exacting rôles. As the wife of Giulio Gatti-Casazza, general manager and impresario of the Metropolitan Opera, she has long taken a prominent place as a factor in American musical affairs, and her vocal gifts have won her countless friends both at the opera and on the concert platform. Perhaps the fact that she was born in Christchurch, New Zealand, has given her a special sympathy with American musical aspirations. Her voice is singularly fresh and sweet, though capable of remarkable color-shading. She is a woman of splendid energy and a most versatile artist.

AMATO, PASQUALE, Baritone (Ah-mah'-toh)

Pasquale Amato was born in Naples, and was not originally destined for a musical career. After his voice developed under the teaching of famous masters, however, it became evident that he was destined for operatic success. One of the most gifted baritones of the day, he has achieved success not only in Italy, but also in London and other European music centres, as well as South America. He made his début with the Metropolitan Opera House in New York, 1908, in "Traviata."

BACHAUS, WILHELM, Pianist (Bakh-owss)

Wilhelm Bachaus has been touring the world, as a concert pianist, at intervals since 1900, when, as a lad of sixteen, fresh from the hands of Eugen d'Albert, he was recognized as an artist of the foremost order—one of the few who reach that goal of perfect artistry so many strive for, and strive for vainly. He was born at Leipzig, the home of so much of the world's really great music, and of so many great musical traditions. In 1905 he began teaching in England, where he won the Rubinstein prize for piano-playing. He made a notable tour of the United States in 1912-14, and he has repeated this with the highest kind of recognition vouchsafed the artist. His playing is characterized by a brilliant, sound technic with a subtle and delicate sense of tone-color, and a feeling for the musical phrase like that of the poetic phrase in words.

BATTISTINI, MATTIA, Baritone

Battistini is one of the few great artists whom American impresarios never succeeded in luring away from Europe. It is said that his dread of the ocean voyage alone has caused him to refuse brilliant offers from New York. In Russia, where he sang regularly for more than twenty years, in Spain and in his native Italy, he is highly regarded because of the sheer beauty of his voice, his warm, true Italian style, and the dramatic force of his acting. His career has been longer than that of most singers, and it has conferred as much glory, perhaps, as it has received. Though Battistini sings everything, his name will be remembered, perhaps, most in connection with the older Italian opera and its vocal, scenic and dramatic grandeurs.

BAUER, HAROLD, Pianist (Bow'-urr)

Harold Bauer is an artist of intellect fired with emotion. He was born in England, but, as his name indicates, of German, and of Welsh, descent. When only ten years old, he made his début, in London, as a violinist, and he for nine years toured Great Britain in this capacity. He then met Paderewski, who strongly advised him to study further, in Paris; and while teaching the violin there, he studied and mastered the piano, which he ever since has made his chosen instrument of expression, and which he plays with an art which admits of few rivals. He made his début as a pianist in 1893, and first appeared in the United States in 1900. He has toured everywhere, has upheld the finest and most robust ideals of music throughout the world, and now, with mature life, has come into that place in the art-life of the world which is given to but very few.

BESANZONI, GABRIELLA, Contralto (Bay-san-tzoh'-nee)

Gabriella Besanzoni is one of the great mezzo-contraltos of the younger generation. She is by birth a Roman, and it was in the Imperial City that she first made her operatic début at the Costanzi Theatre. Her fame spread rapidly as she appeared at one Italian opera house after another, including La Scala at Milan. She appeared then with high honors at the Reale of Madrid and the Liceo of Barcelona. Her Santuzza in Italy was a triumph, as was her Carmen in Spain, where, as a rule, this opera had formerly been received with coldness. South American and Mexican engagements led to her coming to the United States, where she was instantly engaged to sing with the Metropolitan Opera Company.

BORI, LUCREZIA, Soprano (Boh'-ree)

Lucrezia Bori's real name is Lucrezia Borgia (or Borja, in Spanish), but she prefers to be known as Bori. Though of Italian descent, she is a native of Valencia, Spain. Permitted to follow her obvious destiny as a singer, she went to Milan for study, and made her début in Rome as Micaela in "Carmen." Her first season was very successful, and she followed it up in South America. After another European season she was engaged for the Metropolitan in New York. Her American career began as one of the youngest singers ever heard in opera in this country, and her youth and beauty, together with her lovely voice and dramatic ability, make her unique. Her records well display the beauty of her voice and the charm of her personality. Every bit of delineation which comes from this singer is distinguished by cameo-like exquisiteness and purity of outline. Joyousness of inspiration, artistic fitness, flashes of humor, reveal gifts beyond possibility of counterfeit.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Victor Records of the Boston Symphony Orchestra represent this world-famous organization at the height of its powers. Its place in the history of American music is almost unique, for it was founded, and for a time virtually supported, by one individual—the late Henry L. Higginson of Boston, who brought together its first personnel in 1881. Under his guidance, it grew to be self-supporting, the Boston Symphony concerts being a characteristic part of the city's whole life and extending its fame as a musical and intellectual centre. Many great conductors in turn had the orchestra, which introduced many things for the first time in the country—the idea of a pension fund for its members being among them. Its finest players remained with it year after year, many of them achieving individual fame of their own. Despite the orchestra's reputation, comparatively few persons in the immense United States have had the chance to hear it, for not all Americans live in Boston, and symphony organizations, generally speaking, do not travel with ease.

CARUSO, ENRICO, Tenor (Kah-roo'-zoh)

Enrico Caruso, not so long dead, was the greatest tenor of his generation, having had no equal within the memory of living humankind. His voice, of unrivalled sweetness and power, was a natural gift, developed to the highest degree by faithful training and study. There was little in the domain of song which he did not make his own, turning even less precious metal, at times, into gold, by the peculiar magic of his art. He was born in Naples, in 1873, and sang, as a child, in the churches of Naples. He was eighteen when he began serious study, aided by a distinguished singer who realized his powers. He made his debut at Naples, in 1894, in "L'Amico Francesco," then sang in Italy, Egypt and elsewhere. He came to the United States in 1903, where recognition was immediate.

CARUSO

His fame spread enormously. His services were in demand everywhere throughout the civilized world. He gave them, freely and without reserve, his career being a record of generosity, in the world of art, and in the world of common life. He came into such honors as have rarely been given any singer. At the crown of his career, late in 1920, while singing in the Metropolitan Opera House, he was taken ill on the stage. A long and distressing illness followed, from which he was believed to have recovered. Going home to Italy for final convalescence, he suffered a relapse, dying in Naples on August 2, 1921.

Caruso's long connection with the Victor Company were of an intimately personal nature. He made for it many superb records—together forming an artistic achievement unprecedented in the world of song.

CASALS, PABLO, Violoncellist (Cah-sahls')

Pablo Casals is such a recognized master of the violoncello, that it is common knowledge that whenever he visits a city, its orchestras are likely to be bare of 'cellists, as they all flock to hear him play. This great artist was born in Vendrell, near Barcelona, Spain, in 1876. He was the son of an organist, with whom he studied, and from whom he learned to play the violin, flute and piano. At twelve he took up the 'cello, began to win prizes, and in a year or two he began his concert career, which has carried him all over the world, and brought him the highest honors that may come to an artist, including the profound admiration and respect of those of his own craft. His playing is almost unbelievably smooth, finished and elegant. If he gave up the 'cello, he still would be a violinist of the highest rank.

CHALIAPIN, FEODOR, Bass (Shahl-yah'-pin)

This remarkable Russian basso is not simply a singer but an artist; not merely a personality but a man. Being such, he has had not a "career," but a life. He was born at Kazan, Russia, in 1873. At 7 he was a cobbler's apprentice; he became wood-carver, book-binder, pawn-broker's clerk, novice in a monastery of the Russian church, and longshoreman on the Volga at 17 cents a day. At 17 he was in comic opera at $6 a week—machinist, prompter, stage manager, singer, all in one. Not long afterwards he was singing in Moscow at $6,000 a year. He upset all stage tradition, expanding, not breaking, rules. In Boito's "Mefistofele" he appears with the upper half of his body nude and covered with luminous paint. Chaliapin not only sings but acts a song; every record is a drama in miniature.

CHEMET, RENÉE, Violinist (Sheh-may Reh-nay) (Acc. by Kaufman, Liachowsky)

Renée Chemet is French by birth, and she gained her enviable place in French musical life by hard work as a child. She began young (all violinists must!) but for a time she turned her attention to voice study. It is told that in her earlier days she used to walk eight miles from her own little village to a town where a music teacher was to be had, then walk home again. Her voice failed her, but her skill with the violin did not. She is young, full of life and energy, and a true musician, as her records will attest. She has toured, and with well-deserved success. Her playing, though forceful, has a lovely feminine grace. Her tone is rather of the lyric variety—rich, elegant, pure and sweet.

CHICAGO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of Frederick Stock, perpetuates the work of the late Theodore Thomas, who quite possibly did more to promote the growth of modern symphony organizations in America than any single individual. As far back as 1870, in New York, he conceived the idea of a symphony organization which should be the "first in the land"; with the courage of the true idealist, he struggled for years without adequate recognition until he went to Chicago. When he died there, he left the organization in the sympathetic hands of Stock. Today it is one of the acknowledged great orchestras of the world. It never has faltered nor compromised with its high standards. It plays with superb finish.

COATES, ALBERT, Conductor and Symphony Orchestra

Albert Coates, despite his English name, is of Russian birth, although of mixed English and Russian parentage. He has conducted and trained orchestras in almost every country, it would seem, in which the symphony orchestra is known as a type of musical organization. A student of Nikisch's, he began conducting in public at Leipzig itself; thence took charge of various operas throughout Europe. In 1911 he became chief conductor of the old Imperial Opera; later he went to England, and then came to the United States as guest conductor, later as conductor of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. He is a composer of pronounced ability; a musician of profound knowledge, and a conductor of splendid, masculine personality.

CORTOT, ALFRED, Pianist (Cor-toh')

Born in Switzerland, of French parents, Alfred Cortot went to Paris to study. After graduating with high honors he toured Europe with great success, earning himself a place among the foremost pianists of the day. Not content with this, however, he won great distinction as a conductor, and founded the Parisian Société des Concerts, and directed the Concerts Populaires in Lille. When only thirty years old he became a professor at the Conservatoire, succeeding Marmontel and Pugno—two of the greatest of French pianists. During the war Cortot was on the staff of General Gallieni, defender of Paris, having charge of concerts in hospitals, training camps, etc., and devoting special care to the "reconstruction" of wounded soldiers. For his services he has been made a Chevalier of the Legion of Honor, and was selected as the soloist for the semi-official visit to the United States, with Messenger and the Conservatoire Orchestra. His style is brilliant, clear, and at all times poetic, and his conscious control of tone is a resource achieved by few pianists, a dazzling, almost mercurial quality in one number being contrasted with sombre, almost orchestrally distributed colors in another.

CROOKS, RICHARD, Tenor

Richard Crooks is a native of New Jersey. He comes from the city of Trenton, on the Delaware River, on the way from New York to Philadelphia. He began singing as a boy soprano in a church choir, in his own city, where he remained between the ages of nine and fourteen. His choirmaster, Sydney Bourne, urged him to go into music as a profession and was at great pains to lay, for him, the necessary foundation in study. He went to New York, continued in church choirs, perfecting his knowledge of oratorio, then, with early maturity, went into the larger field of concert work. He is justly considered one of the finest of American-born tenors before the public today.

DAL MONTE, TOTI, Soprano (Dahl Mon'-teh)

Toti Dal Monte is, at the present time of writing, a name almost new to America; it is borne by one of the greatest coloratura sopranos ever sent here from Italy, the home of song. She is a Venetian, the daughter of Professor Amilcare Dal Monte, a distinguished man of letters, and, like Galli-Curci, she originally intended piano study. While yet at school, she strained a hand practicing, and thus put an end to hope in that direction. Her father took her to Barbara Marchisio, famous teacher, then living in retirement, for whom she sang, in a little-girl voice, the Jewel Song from Faust. Marchisio became literally her guardian angel; and in 1916 she made her debut, at La Scala, in Milan. Since then she has sung in Europe, South America, and Australia, recognized everywhere as one of the greatest of coloratura sopranos.

D'ALVAREZ, MARGUERITE, Contralto

(Dahl-vahr-ayz)

Marguerite d'Alvarez, contralto, comes from the ancient Inca city of Cuzco, in Peru, which even the Indians of today salute with a brief invocation whenever they come in sight of it. She made her European operatic debut as a young girl. She since has sung in the chief opera houses of the world. An artist of strong personality, who gives her own individual stamp to everything she undertakes, d'Alvarez has become something more than a favorite with American audiences. She is a writer as well as a singer; a circumstance of enormous help in considering creatively, her very numerous operatic rôles.

Mr. De Gogorza was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., of Spanish parents who were passing through America. He left America at the age of two months and went to Spain where his parents resided for some time. The first languages that he spoke were French and Spanish. He subsequently was sent to England at the age of eleven to learn the language. Later he went to École "Monge" in Paris, returning to America in his twentieth year. He obtained American citizenship after residing several years in this country, as he had been registered at his birth at the Spanish consulate as a Spanish subject. He has Anglo-Saxon strength and virility, Spanish passion and abandon, Italian subtlety and fire, and French perfection, and these are things which are not attained by the simple ability to sing in these various tongues.

DE LUCA, GIUSEPPE, Baritone

Giuseppe de Luca is one of the most distinguished members of the Metropolitan Opera Company. A Roman by birth, at the age of thirteen his talent for singing was brought to the attention of Bartolini, the famous baritone and teacher. The boy then showed indications of musical feeling in marked degree, and his voice at that time was of the distinctive baritone quality. Fearing a possible change in it, though, it was not until some two years later that de Luca entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia in Rome, where he studied for five years before making his début in "Faust." He spent eight winter seasons in the famous La Scala, then extended his career to the New World. Mr. de Luca's name will always be associated, in musical history, with the great artists of his generation. It does not always happen that even a great artist is so assiduous in his search after perfection. He has not, like so many, relied too much on his great natural gifts. The result is apparent in every phrase he sings.

ELMAN, MISCHA, Violinist

Though he has lived for some years in America, and has come to be regarded as one of our own, Mischa Elman was born in South Russia, and owed his musical education to the accident that the great teacher, Leopold Auer, while on tour, heard him play. Owing to racial difficulties, a special permit from the Czar had to be obtained to get Elman and his family out of Moscow and into Petrograd. Once there, however, he made astonishing progress. Overwhelming success in the Russian capital was followed by equally astounding results in London and eventually in Russia. Among violinists the "Elman tone" is spoken of almost with bated breath. It has a fulness of volume, a sensuous richness of quality that make it unique, and it is used with extraordinary nicety of technique and a musicianly understanding. Mischa Elman has interested himself in chamber music, and records of the Elman String Quartet have been features in our catalogs. For solos by Alda and Caruso with obbligati by Elman—See "Alda" and "Caruso."

FARRAR, GERALDINE, Soprano (Fah-rah')

Few artists are so dear to the heart of the American public as Geraldine Farrar. Her wonderful voice, her histrionic gifts, her personal beauty, count for much, but above all her courage, her spirit and enterprise, are peculiarly appealing to the American point of view. She was born in Melrose, Mass., and began her musical studies at the age of twelve, under Miss Long, of Boston. Later she studied with Emma Thursby in New York, at the same time learning dramatic action from Capoul. In 1899 she went to Paris to study with Trabadello, but being desirous of achieving the highest development wisely went to Mme. Lilli Lehmann. Operatic successes in Europe of the most brilliant kind made her engagement by the Metropolitan inevitable. The number of rôles she has successfully created is astonishing, and to every one she has brought the same care, the same intelligence, the same superb artistry. More especially, perhaps, we think of her as Tosca, as Carmen, Marguerite, or Madama Butterfly, but to these may be added Mimi (an unforgettable achievement), Zerlina Juliet, Cherubino, Gilda, Violetta, Nedda and many others.

FLETA, MIGUEL, Tenor (Flet-táh)

Miguel Fleta, who made his Metropolitan début during the season of 1922-1923, is of Spanish birth. Almost by accident it was discovered he could sing—when a disciple of the famous singer Manuel Azo heard him and offered instruction. He studied in Barcelona, but made his début in Trieste, passing thence to Rome, Bologna, Milan, Vienna, Madrid, and the Colon at Buenos Ayres. When he first sang in Madrid, he was recognized as one of the greatest of Spanish tenors. He has been chosen to create important rôles by modern composers. Fleta's voice is a pure fresh tenor, clear and bell-like in quality, and he especially delights in music and in musical phrases which exhibit his unusual power of coloring a single long note. This, however, is only one detail of many.

FLONZALEY QUARTET (Flon-zah'-ee)

The engagement of the Flonzaley Quartet has opened up new and fascinating fields of possibilities for the Victor. The world's greatest composers have lavished their greatest genius upon the production of chamber music—especially the string quartet, two violins, viola, and 'cello—yet owing to its delicacy, and the rarity with which a true ensemble is obtained, this music is perhaps the least known of any. The Flonzaley Quartet is an organization devoted exclusively to playing this music. It was formed in 1903 by E. J. De Coppet, an American music lover, and named after his Swiss Villa on Lake Geneva. The Quartet, however, has long maintained an independent existence, and is famous in American musical circles for its devotion to its artistic ideals, and the perfection of its achievements. The players now in the Quartet are Adolfo Betti, first violin; Alfred Pochon, second; Nicolas Moldavan, viola; and Iwan d'Archambeau, 'cello. The Quartet binds its members not to play in orchestra or even solo, so as to preserve the perfect unity of effect for which it is famous. At the death of Mr. De Coppet in 1916, his place as patron was taken by his son Mr. Andre De Coppet. These and their future records will be appreciated by all who are discriminating in their musical tastes, as the result of most careful and painstaking effort. (For quintette numbers with Gabrilowitsch—See "Gabrilowitsch.")

GABRILOWITSCH, OSSIP, Pianist (Gah-bril-loo'-vitch)

Ossip Gabrilowitsch is one of the greatest living tone-poets of the piano. Composer, virtuoso and orchestral conductor, his is one of the most significant names in contemporary music. In listening to his several records one is impressed by the feeling that every individual tone has its own special and separate life,—and yet how marvellously each is fused into an organic whole like a separate cell into its parent organism! Gabrilowitsch is of Russian birth, and he studied with Liadow, Glazounow, Leschetitzky and Navratil,—all of them geniuses. Concertizing, touring, composing, working quietly but incessantly since his début at Berlin in 1896, he several years ago was called to the conductorship of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. His records with the Flonzaley quartet represent the beginning of an epoch in American recorded music.

GALLI-CURCI, AMELITA, Soprano (Gal-lee Koor'-chee)

Galli-Curci first came to the United States unheralded.

Her début with the Chicago Opera Company in November, 1916, however, was such a triumph as has rarely been experienced in recent times. As soon as her operatic engagements permitted she visited other important music centres in America, where similar fortune awaited her. Not until January, 1918, did she make her formal début in opera in New York. Her singing at once created the wildest enthusiasm, and her conquest of the United States was complete. Galli-Curci is an Italian by birth and training, but is something of a cosmopolitan by nature. Her voice is one that haunts the memory; wonderfully pure in quality, amazingly flexible, and of even quality throughout its entire wide compass. The Victor Company was quick to recognize her genius, and her first records were made even prior to her American début.

GIANNINI, DUSOLINA, Soprano (Jah-nee'-nee)

Dusolina Giannini is an American soprano who startled conservative London into placing her with the greatest recent names in song. She was born in Philadelphia, and as the daughter of Ferruccio Giannini, a distinguished tenor who made some records in the very early days of the Victor, she comes honestly by her fine natural powers. Though, like every perfectly trained singer, she can "sing everything," some of her loveliest achievements have been in the domain of pure lyric song—in simple legato melodies of the type where the utmost correctness of intonation is the very first demand upon the artist. A woman of gentle and winning personality, of almost Olympian simplicity and dignity of presence, she steps by natural right into the company of the great. In the new generation of singers, who can perpetuate their art by the new processes of recording so many of the elder generation could not live to hear, she is happily placed.

States almost unknown, he was engaged practically off-hand, by the Metropolitan Opera Company, for which he sang a number of important rôles.

Gigli was born at Recanati in Italy, March 20, 1890. His musical studies began in childhood. His father was sexton of the largest church in his native town, and for ten years the boy sang in its choir, soon rising to be chief soloist. His voice attracted crowds, even then. He was sent to the Conservatory at Rome, where he studied under Rosati, and his operatic début was made at Rovigo, in 1914, in La Gioconda. His success was instant. He soon became one of the most celebrated Italian tenors of the day.

GLUCK, ALMA, Soprano (Glock)

Although born in Bucharest, Roumania, Mme. Gluck is essentially American, as she came to this country at the age of six, and most of her musical education was received here. The public knew very little of this fine artist until one morning, some years ago, when, after making her first appearance as Sophie in "Werther" at the New Theatre, she awoke to find herself famous. After several seasons at the Metropolitan, Alma Gluck entered the concert field, in which she made a phenomenal success. Her list of records touches almost every province of music. The marvelous beauty of her voice is apparent throughout—clear, cool, and of classic perfection of quality. Some of her best records were made with her husband, Efrem Zimbalist.

GORDON, JEANNE, Contralto

Jeanne Gordon, contralto, is one of the growing family of New World singers who have not found it necessary either to study, or to seek first critical approval, abroad. She was born in Canada, and took up the study of music under Dr. Albert Ham, of Toronto. Her first public appearances were in New York film theatres. She then went to the Metropolitan Opera Company, the great goal of all singers in America, singing with it for nine seasons and going thence into the still larger field of concert work. Her voice is of lovely rich quality, and she employs it with great skill and expressiveness. She is especially happy in not over-dramatizing "dramatic" types of music.

HEIFETZ, JASCHA, Violinist (High'-fetz)

To few it is given while still on the threshold of life to achieve the success which comes ordinarily—if it comes at all—only after maturity and experience. Yet that is what Jascha Heifetz accomplished. He commenced playing the violin at three, completed the course at the Royal Music School in Vilna, Poland, at the age of seven, and, after study with Professor Leopold Auer in Petrograd, was a mature artist at the age of ten. His tour through Russia was a triumph; the keenest critics of Europe had nothing but praise for him. And after a leisurely trip from Russia to the United States, by way of Vladivostock and California, he swiftly conquered America. Barely at maturity, he ranks with the greatest violinists of the day. Though his years can be counted, the measure of his genius knows no bounds. His technique is flawless; the intonation is perfect, the quality of tone superb and utterly individual, complete mastery over bow and violin having been vouchsafed him in childhood by a Nature bent upon a perfect model.

HEMPEL, FRIEDA, Soprano

Mme. Hempel is a native of Leipzig, and as a child showed such musical talent that she was sent to the Leipzig Conservatory, where her unusual voice and great ambition caused her to make rapid progress. In 1906 she sang at Bayreuth as one of the Rhine maidens and in 1907 made a few appearances in London, but her formal debut was in the autumn of 1907 at the Royal Opera House in Berlin.

Mme. Hempel's success was immediate, Berlin opera-goers being delighted at the novelty of a coloratura singer who possessed not only a lovely voice but youth and beauty as well.

HOMER, LOUISE, Contralto

The popular American contralto comes from Pittsburgh, Pa., where she was Louise Delworth Beatty, daughter of a well-known clergyman. She is now the wife of Sidney Homer, American composer and one of her earlier teachers, known as the composer of many fine and original songs. Louise Homer laid the foundations of her musical education in the United States, with Alice Groff in Philadelphia, and with W. L. Whitney. Her unusual talent was recognized by George W. Chadwick and Arthur Foote, who with her husband, then in Boston, encouraged her to study and advised her to seek the operatic stage. Taking this advice she went abroad, and two years in Paris atmosphere and training accomplished wonders for her voice and her stage experience. She made her début as Leonora in "Favorita" in 1898.

JERITZA, MARIA, Soprano (Yer'-itsah)

Maria Jeritza is in private life the Baroness Popper. She is of Moravian birth, having been born in the little town of Brun. Her début was at Almitz, and she came thence to Vienna in 1912. The Metropolitan forces had her in mind for New York as early as 1914, but the war interrupted all, and her début here did not take place until 1921, when she sang in Erich Korngold's "Dead City," in New York, in its first American presentation. Mme. Jeritza has a fine large voice, a commanding presence, and dramatic powers of a high order, especially fitting her for the rôles of the Northern opera—though indeed she sings with facility, and with splendid intelligence, in those of the Italian and French schools. She is an artist who still is young, whose sympathies are keen, vivid and inclusive, and whose work will probably grow even richer and finer as years advance.

JOURNET, MARCEL, Bass (Zhoor-nay')

Journet was born at Nice, France. He studied under Seghettini and made his début at Bezieres, Belgium, in 1891, where M. Calabresi, manager of the Brussels La Monnaie, heard him and promptly engaged him for three years. In 1897 he made his first appearance in London and has since been a prime favorite.

Journet is possessed of a magnificent voice, full and resonant, and has a fine stage presence. He is perfectly at home in an unusually varied repertoire, speaking the languages as a native. His French is a model of singing enunciation.

This sterling artist is well-known to opera-goers in America, as he was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for many years. In 1908 M. Journet was engaged by the Paris Opéra, and has since been one of the important members of that great company, returning to America only at intervals. Certain rôles of his may be considered historic through his association with them quite as much as for their own musical and operatic importance. His repertoire, in opera and out of it, is enormous. For concerted numbers in which Journet sings see "Caruso."

KREISLER, FRITZ, Violinist (Krīce'-ler)

Kreisler was born in 1875, and although brought up in an atmosphere of refinement, he confesses that at one period of his boyhood his great ambition was to be a trolley conductor! Fortunately this youthful ambition was succeeded by an ambition to excel in music. This he did at an early age, as do so many artists of real genius.

At the age of ten young Fritz won the first prize at the Vienna Conservatory; and in his twelfth year astonished the professors at the Conservatoire in Paris by winning the Prix de Rome, an unprecedented occurrence. As a boy prodigy, he toured America with Rosenthal, returning to Austria to enter other fields. Although during these four years he abandoned violin practice entirely, on his reappearance in 1899 his bow was as true and his technique as flawless as ever. Since then he had toured and concertized, interpreting in the terms of his own experience all that has come within the range of his genial, broad, and sympathetic mind.

(For solos with Kreisler's obbligati see "Farrar" and "McCormack." For three records of the Bach Concerto for Two Violins, see "Zimbalist" in Green section.)

KREISLER, HUGO, Violoncellist (Krice-ler)

Hugo Kreisler, though he is less known in the United States than his distinguished brother Fritz, is known widely throughout Europe as a violoncellist of highly unusual powers. His playing reveals a tone of remarkable beauty; fluent, elegant, rich, varied, without "scrape" or roughness of any description.

It may as well be pointed out here, as elsewhere, in dealing with others of the great artists who have made records of the violoncello for the Victor Company: that no instrument, even the violin itself, exceeds the 'cello as an instrument of expression in music. Its technique, like that of any instrument worth mastering, is subtle and difficult. In its perfection, it must be applied with the utmost sensitivity, the utmost strength, and the utmost control, and you will mark these things in his records. More than this, the 'cello seems to possess the uncanny power of exposing any insincerity, any lack of sympathy on the part of its player.

LANDOWSKA, WANDA, Harpsichordist

(Lahn-doff'-skah)

Wanda Landowska holds a place in the field of music which is very nearly unique. She has revived the harpsichord, precursor of the piano, and she interprets upon it the music of those masters who lived and thrived before the time of the modern instrument. She is of Polish birth, from Warsaw, but she has lived in other European cities, notably in Berlin and in Paris, where she has taught the elder music, absorbed it, written of it, and passed it on to others in its pristine beauty. She has toured extensively. She is a pianist of splendid powers, a composer, and a true authority on the classics. She designed her own harp-

The harpsichord differs from the piano from the fact that its strings are plucked with quills, not struck with hammers, and from the clavichord in that this last instrument produces the tone and "stops" the string with one motion, by a metal "tangent."

Hulda Lashanska possesses that rare gift, a pure lyric soprano voice, developed to the utmost fluency by coloratura training. She is an American, born in New York City, and reared among surroundings conducive to her artistic development. At eighteen she was a pianist of enviable powers. Then her voice was discovered. She studied with Frieda Ashforth and with Marcella Sembrich, and was encouraged, in moments of self-doubt, by Sophie Braslau. She has appeared with practically every symphony organization of importance in the United States since her début in New York under Walter Damrosch. She sings with rare evenness, self-possession, and with quite extraordinary beauty of tone.

LAUDER, SIR HARRY, Comedian (Law'-der)

Sir Harry Lauder began life as a miner. He lightened the labors of his fellows by singing to them, at odd times, his now world-famous songs of humor and sentiment. He sought the music-halls of London; at first was received coldly, but in a short while was singing at three or four every night, being whirled from one to the other in taxicabs. It has been said of him that in national crises, he possibly did more than any single individual to raise the spirits of London; his appearance anywhere was the signal for laughter and cheers. The World War, which brought him the loss of his only son, brought also the honor of knighthood. His contracts with the Victor, made

LEWIS, MARY, Soprano

Mary Lewis was born in Arkansas. Step-child of a Methodist minister, when eight years old she sang in the local choir. Ten years later she virtually "ran away" with a theatrical troupe that stranded on the Pacific Coast. She became a "bathing beauty," then a cabaret singer in Greenwich Village, then, by virtue of her unusual voice and beautiful presence, won first place in the "Follies." Her ambitions, however, were made of sterner stuff than so often goes to the uplifting of Follies celebrity, and she went abroad to study singing. She won a place in smaller operatic companies, then came back to America for a Metropolitan début. Applauded, recognized and accepted, she there came into her true and high place among the singers of the New World.

MARTINELLI, GIOVANNI, Tenor

This brilliant singer has made a notable success at the Metropolitan, being one of the best Italian tenors ever heard in America. He was born in Montagnana. His father, a cabinetmaker, was not able to give his son a musical education, but he managed to learn the clarinet and finally joined the regimental band, where the director discovered the young player's remarkable voice. He was sent to Professor Mandolini, and soon made his début at the Dal Verme as Ernani. A Covent Garden engagement soon followed, and as America eventually gets the best singers, he soon came to the Metropolitan. Martinelli is a sterling artist, who brings to everything he undertakes, the completeness and finish which come only from years of faithful study and human experience.

German with her splendid voice, her musical intelligence and her dramatic power. The artist was born in Hungary. She made her début in 1901, in Strasburg, in Weber's "Oberon." After some years in continental Europe, she came to the United States, where she sang for some years with the Metropolitan Opera Company. She has sung at the Wagner festivals in Bayreuth. Her rôles are very numerous, and they include all schools of opera. Her voice, generally characterized as a "mezzo-soprano," is of great range, and she has sung soprano rôles with ease. She has received medals and orders from various European countries. She has made many concert tours in both the Old and the New Worlds, where she is equally well known. She has had a most successful artistic career. She knows, and sings, about everything in music worth singing.

McCORMACK, JOHN, Tenor

Born in Athlone, Ireland, John McCormack early learned to sing the songs of his native land, but he had no reason to suspect that the voice he loved to use was exceptional. Induced to compete at the Dublin Musical Festival, however, he met with such success as enabled him, with the proceeds of a few other concerts, to go to Italy to study. After a successful début, followed with numerous other operatic appearances in Italy, he was engaged for Covent Garden, London, on October 15, 1907. His succeeding triumphs in America are well within memory. He has traveled the length and breadth of the land, and is everywhere received with tumultuous enthusiasm. Now an American citizen, John McCormack has come to be something of an "institution" in America, and he undoubtedly interprets in song the heart of the American people in a way peculiarly his own. Gifted with a voice of superb beauty, he can turn lightly from the most exacting of operatic airs to simple, haunting melodies that linger in the memory with the most treasured experiences of a lifetime. He has entered into an agreement to make records for the Victor Company till February, 1938.

MELBA, DAME NELLIE, Soprano

No prima donna of the present day has ever been so beloved in three continents as has this Australian artist.

Melba was born at Burnley, near Melbourne, Australia. Her father was a Scotch contractor who had been in Australia some years. He was proud of his daughter's musical talent, but objected to her following it as a profession, and it was not until her marriage to Captain Charles Armstrong that she finally decided on a musical career. The singer went to Europe in 1886, and began to study under Mme. Marchesi, making such rapid progress that her debut was made in Brussels in 1887 under the name of Melba (derived, of course, from her native city), and her success was immediate.

In England, where she sang in opera in 1923, she received the title of Dame, the most recent of distinctions conferred upon women of intellect. Her formal retirement, a year or two later, was a national event.

MENGELBERG, WILLEM, Orchest'l Conductor

The name of Willem Mengelberg is an honored one in interpretative music; so honored, indeed, that it conveys honor wherever its possessor goes. He is a native of Holland, having been born in the quaint city of Utrecht, the son of a famous authority on Gothic architecture. His student years were spent training for the piano, when it happened he was given a municipal music directorship in Lucerne. This was in 1891; four years later he was appointed to the directorship of the Concertgebouw Orchestra in Amsterdam, which he developed to a high state of perfection. His methods and his fame spread, and of late years he has been in demand as a guest conductor in every country which can boast of symphony orchestras. He is best known in America through his association with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

MERÖ, YOLANDA, Pianist (Meh-ruh)

Yolando Merö, pianist, is of Hungarian birth and a natural inheritor of Franz Liszt's great tradition. She was born at Budapesth, where, as a little girl, she took up the study of music at the Evangelique School, under her father and Augusta Rennebaum. She made her début in 1913, with the Dresden Philharmonic Orchestra, and six years later, she first was heard in America at Carnegie Hall, New York. She has played with almost every orchestra of note in the United States and Europe. In recognition of her work she was elected Professor at the National Conservatory in Budapesth. Her playing is keen, brilliant, but never unfeminine; and her repertoire, a large one, includes almost everything likely to interest the concert pianist.

NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The Philharmonic Society of New York is correctly described in Grove's Dictionary as "the oldest orchestral body in continuous service in the United States devoted to the performance of orchestral music." It began its concerts in 1842, and it has continued to give them ever since, under the leadership of some of the greatest conductors, developed in the art of music. Active membership in it is an honor as well as a certificate of musicianship. Wagner, Mendelssohn, Liszt, Rubinstein and Dvořák all were honorary members. At its very first concert it gave the Fifth Symphony of Beethoven. No known creative musician of the first rank has ever come to America, or developed in America, it is held, without an invitation to appear with it. When fifty years old, its history was written—practically a record of symphonic music in America up to that time. Conductors who later formed and developed their own orchestras put in their apprenticeship in its service.

The records made by the Orchestra, under the direction of Willem Mengelberg, represent its highest pitch of development.

PADEREWSKI, IGNACE JAN, Pianist (Pad-er-ef'-shee)

The world today knows the history of Ignace Jan Paderewski—and how he placed in abeyance, for a time his career as an artist, for the troublous paths of leadership as the first Premier of the New Poland. Political duties fulfilled, he returned to the art-life and with the most remarkable of results.

Paderewski, for all of his superb mechanical skill, is a tonalist—an artist who can overlay the silvery and at times cool tones of the piano with coruscating iridescences of color. The key once struck, the pianist, unlike the singer, or the player of almost any other instrument, has no control whatsoever in this matter of tone—all must be done beforehand, while the finger descends. The marvel is now, with matured piano recording, that the listener can follow the technique of the artist as though watching him in the flesh.

PHILADELPHIA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Under the masterful leadership of Leopold Stokowski, the Philadelphia Orchestra has rapidly taken a leading position among the symphony orchestras of the United States. The success of the Victor Company in making satisfactory records of a full-sized symphony orchestra in its entirety has enabled us to offer records by the Philadelphia Orchestra under its own brilliant conductor. This orchestra was developed from an amateur orchestra which played under the leadership of Dr. W. W. Gilchrist, a famous American composer. In 1900 a permanent orchestra was established by Fritz Scheel, who was succeeded by Carl Pohlig, formerly First Court Conductor at Stuttgart. He resigned in 1912, and was succeeded by Leopold Stokowski. Under Stokowski the Orchestra has developed remarkably both in organization and artistic achievement. It is now almost entirely self-supporting; a pension fund for the personnel has been established, and the artistic achievements include memorable performances of Gustav Mahler's "Symphony of a Thousand Voices," which was thus given in America for the first time. Each year an increasing number of tours have been made by this orchestra in various parts of the country, though the war necessarily limited its movements for a time. The New York engagements have also increased, showing that the Philadelphia Orchestra is now firmly established among the world's best symphony organizations. There is something almost uncanny in the thought that the polished black surface of a disc-record may contain the co-operative efforts of more than a hundred men; yet here we have miniature performances of the Philadelphia Orchestra exactly attuned to the needs of the living-room of your own home.

PONSELLE, ROSA, Soprano (Pohn'-zél)

Rosa Ponselle is of Italian blood but American birth, and a singer by divine right. She began life in Meriden, Conn., with an enormous handicap, but a handicap over others; for hers is a voice of such beauty and power that it is difficult to see how an artist could develop within any distance of her without a similarly great natural gift. She began as a very young girl, singing in public in all sorts of minor engagements. It was impossible, however, to keep such powers long in obscurity, and still at an age when most singers consider themselves hardly advanced students, she was singing at the Metropolitan with Caruso. Her voice is always sympathetic, and in great moments it reaches qualities of grandeur. She is an actress of such power that if she were to give up singing tomorrow, she still would rank high with her contemporaries of the spoken drama.

POWELL, MAUD, Violinist

The late Maud Powell was the greatest of all women violinists. Circumstances of her death in 1920, in a Pennsylvania city on a concert tour, had about them something of the heroic.

This artist was born in Peru, Illinois, in 1868, and began taking violin lessons when she was eight years old. Through Maud Powell's veins flowed a strain of Hungarian blood from her mother's side, and perhaps this was responsible for a certain warmth of temperament, gypsylike in fervor, which was one of the distinguishing characteristics of her art, serving to humanize a technique which was almost too perfect.

Miss Powell studied with William Lewis four years, and then went abroad, a girl of twelve, to study first with Schradieck and then with Dancla in Paris. Afterward Joachim heard her play in London and offered to take her into his classes without obliging her to go through any further preliminary studies. She returned to New York in 1884 and made her début with the New York Philharmonic in the Bruch G minor Concerto.

RACHMANINOFF, SERGEI, Pianist

(Rach-mah'-nee-off, Sair-jay)

Sergei Rachmaninoff is one of the great figures of contemporary music. He is both a composer and a virtuoso; and considered as either—or as both—he stands in the foremost rank of his time. He was born at Novgorod, Russia, in 1873. At the age of 9 he entered the Petrograd Conservatory. He toured Russia as a pianist in 1892. He early attracted attention as a composer, and in London, in 1899, he appeared in the threefold rôle of composer, orchestral conductor, and pianist, which he since has repeated, many times, in many parts of the world. He visited the United States for the first tour in 1909, return-

RUFFO, TITTA, Baritone (Roof'-foh)

This famous Italian baritone, who for some years past has been one of the operatic sensations of Europe and South America, made his début in the United States at the Metropolitan Opera House, Philadelphia, on November 4, 1912, in Verdi's "Rigoletto."

He is a Tuscan by birth, and at an early age entered the Conservatory of Santa Cecilia at Rome, but after two years of study was dismissed and advised to seek another profession, the directors declaring that his vocal equipment was inadequate for operatic work! Still determined upon a musical career, he went to Milan and sought the advice of Signor Cassini, a former artist who made a specialty of vocal training, and with whom he subsequently studied.

He then went to Rio de Janeiro, where his first success was made. After singing in other South American cities, he soon returned to his native land for a triumph that will ever be memorable.

ments, and it was decided to send him to the Conservatory at Naples. His studies matured just at a time when war conditions made it impossible to begin, in Italy, the career of a virtuoso, and in 1919 he came to the United States, where one of his first acts was to apply to become a citizen. Since then he has lived and concertized in America, where he has met with the success commensurate with his great powers. Like every master of an instrument, he has expanded the technique of his own, and he has succeeded in treating the harp chromatically without violating its structural limitations. He has been particularly happy in some of his transcriptions of popular melodies, which have taken on new qualities of beauty without losing the old.

Olga Samaroff is by birth an American, having been born in San Antonio, Texas, of German and Russian descent. She was reared among fine musical traditions, her mother and her maternal grandmother both having been pianists of high accomplishments. She began her studies with them at the age of five, later going to Paris under Marmontel and Widor. She studied not only the piano, but the organ and the harp. Her first professional appearance, defying all musical tradition, was in the United States, in New York, in 1905. Since then she has developed and perfected her art to a degree which places her among the greatest of living pianists. Her playing has been noted for its poetic charm, her clear, liquid, singing tone possessing a quality altogether hers.

SCHIPA, TITO, Tenor (Skée-pah Tee-toh)

Tito Schipa was born at Lecce, in 1889, and made his début at the Costanze Theatre, in Rome, in "La Traviata." Ten years later, he made his first American appearance, in Chicago, as the Duke in "Rigoletto." His fine voice, distinguished stage presence, and his most intelligent singing, brought him quickly into recognition, and into favor, in the new world. He is a tenor of natural gifts, accomplishing with ease what so many strive for, and so vainly, through the whole of a lifetime, without success. His voice has a wholesome, robust, manly quality for all its lyric smoothness and its ease of production. He has those attributes, as an artist, which seem to appeal most powerfully to the general American public. His first Victor record was one of recondite origin and of great beauty; since then he has made a series—each one in profoundly individual style.

SCHUMANN-HEINK, ERNESTINE, Contralto

Mme. Schumann-Heink has been long in America, and has been long and closely identified with American life. At the age of ten she was sent to the Convent of the Ursuline Nuns in Prague, where she sang in the choir, but entirely by ear. Her father was afterward transferred to Graz where a teacher named Marietta von Le Clair, who had recognized the signs, offered to give the budding genius her efforts without pay. The girl's voice at that time was a deep contralto, with no high notes. The wise teacher kept her on nothing but exercises for two years before she gave her songs by Mendelssohn, Schubert and other composers. In 1878 she made her first appearance at the Dresden Opera House as Azucena in "Il Trovatore," and in the early '90s she achieved fame in Berlin. In 1896 she appeared at Bayreuth and in 1898 created a sensation in London. Her first appearance in New York was in 1898. American audiences refused to allow her to return to Europe. Since then, for almost a generation she has been a great presence among us.

ST. LOUIS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, though still young in years, is a fine vigorous flower of the new growth of music in America. Under the conductorship of Rudolph Ganz, long known as a pianist, teacher, composer and orchestral conductor, it is rising to a high place among organizations of its type.

In its pioneerhood, it has undertaken exacting and difficult programs, and with surprisingly beautiful results. Its training with Ganz has been thorough, and it has carried the orchestra to splendid levels of achievement.

STOKOWSKI, LEOPOLD (Sto-koff-skee)

Leopold Stokowski is one of the greatest living masters of that most gigantic, most sensitive and most difficult of all musical instruments,—the symphony orchestra with its hundred or more individual wills. The mind of the great orchestral conductor is much like that of the simultaneous blindfold chess-player; who must not only keep the functions of many separate pieces in mind, but also their bearings upon one another; and he has this added difficulty, that he does not deal with inert mathematical certainties, but with the plastic material of human emotion and the evanescent human sense of beauty. Stokowski's achievements in this peculiar sphere have become part of the true history—the inner history,—of music in America.

Stokowski is of English birth but American citizenship. In 1912 he became conductor of the Philadelphia Orchestra raising it to the front rank of the world's organizations. His recordings as its conductor are listed under the heading "Philadelphia Orchestra," in this section.

TALLEY, MARION, Soprano

The career of Marion Talley reads almost like a bit of fiction. She was born at Kansas city, where, as a pink little creature with penwiper skirts and "poker curls," she began to sing in public at a very tender age. By the time she was sixteen, all musical America knew there would be a genius to present to the public in a year or two. Still in curls, she had a hearing at the Metropolitan, where she was frankly advised to put in a couple of years more in the serious study of the art of song. She had not passed out of her teens, when her début took place at the selfsame stage, as Gilda in "Rigoletto." The doors of the opera house were nearly broken in by those unable to gain entrance to hear her. She is a natural coloratura soprano, of the highest and rarest gifts, as her records will attest for her.

Jacques Thibaud is one of the greatest living exponents, at the violin, of French music and French tradition,—to which he adds a well-deserved authority as an interpreter of Mozart and the "classics" generally. He was born at Bordeaux, in 1880, and studied with his father and with Marsick. He supported himself, in early years, by playing at a Parisian cafe, where he was heard by Colonne and taken away for his orchestra, where he soon became a regular soloist. He has often been heard in the United States, and with fine success.

He studied with Dupuy and with Basil Ruysdael, and for eight or nine years sang in church, concert and light opera. Coming to New York, he was engaged by the Metropolitan Company. He memorized Italian rôles before he knew the precise meaning of the words. Cast for the rôle of Ford at a revival of Verdi's Falstaff, a riot of applause broke forth for him at the end of the second act. Since then he has mastered, and triumphed in, other rôles. His voice is rich, powerful and marvellously expressive, and his stage presentations are splendidly vivid and human.

WERRENRATH, REINALD, Baritone

Reinald Werrenrath has been making Victor Records for some years. As a younger artist (he still is young) his contributions were made to the Black and the Blue Label classes. By sheer force of merit he won a place among the immortals of modern vocal music, and he will in future contribute to the Red Seal Records.

He has sung with the Metropolitan Opera Company, and he has sung in concert everywhere throughout the United States. He is the son of George Werrenrath, who was himself a famous singer. He was born of Danish ancestry, in Brooklyn, N. Y., and graduated from New York University. He has a splendid rich baritone voice, clear, smooth and sympathetic, and beyond that he sings with extraordinary understanding and intelligence.

WHITEHILL, CLARENCE, Baritone

Mr. Whitehill hails from the West, having been born in Marengo, Iowa. He took such a keen interest in music that at the age of 19 he went to Chicago to begin studying in earnest. He sang in several Chicago churches with some success, and four years later Mme. Melba advised him to go abroad for serious study. The young man took her advice, went to Paris and placed himself under Giraudet for dramatic action, and Sbriglia for French dramatic rôles. He proved an earnest student and hard worker, and had soon mastered more than thirty bass rôles.

His début was made at Brussels in 1900. Since then he has sung in both the Old World and the New.

WILLIAMS, EVAN, Tenor

The fact that Evan Williams is no longer in the land of the living makes his unforgettable records all the more valuable. Evan Williams was essentially an American product. The son of a family in poor circumstances, he was born in Ohio in 1867, and enjoyed little preliminary education. He was gifted, however, with a voice of singular sweetness, and with an indomitable will. Coming to New York, he soon established himself as one of the foremost concert and oratorio singers of the day. A tour through England, the home of oratorio, added greatly to his reputation, which was still increased upon his return to America. An artist of the very highest attainments, he never lost sight of the human side of his art. He died May 24, 1918 a singer in more ways than one "beloved among his people."

ZIMBALIST, EFREM, Violinist (Zim'-bal-ist)

This distinguished Russian violinist was born at Rostoff on the Don, Russia, April 9, 1889, and disclosed a musical temperament at an early age. He did not, however, commence to study the violin until seven years old, when he took lessons from his father, a distinguished orchestra director. Later he went to Leopold Auer in Petrograd, and made rapid progress. His début in that city was a phenomenal success, which was repeated in the principal European music centres. A splendid London début definitely established his fame in England, and an equally warm welcome awaited him in the United States, where he seems now to be fully "one of us." His marriage to Alma Gluck led to the making of beautiful duet records by these famous Victor artists.

THIS new Green Section of the Victor Catalog is chiefly devoted to records which, for reasons of historic and personal interest, we have thought it wise to retain through the changes in recording and reproducing methods which have become necessary since the discovery of Orthophonic principles. Most of the records in this section have been made by the now-abandoned "acoustic" or horn method of recording. Many of them, the work of artists now dead, cannot ever be replaced. Others are the work of artists still living, but for the time being inaccessible, for purposes of re-recording under the new methods; others, again, exhibit methods and qualities of interpretation, which are so characteristic of their makers at certain periods of their artistic development, as to be of the highest comparative importance in the historic study of music. All of them are of too distinguished a character to sacrifice, even if the public would permit us. And all continue in such public demand that we keep them in the catalog.
